Russell.qxd 12/29/2008 8:22 PM Page vii

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Chapter 1. Introduction: International Blogging-Identity, Politics, and Networked Publics 1
Adrienne Russell

Chapter 2. From the Margins to the Center: New Media and the Case of Bondy Blog in France 11
Nabil Echchaibi

Chapter 3. Theorizing the Muslim Blogosphere: Blogs, Rationality, Publicness, and Individuality 29
Eugenia Siapera

Chapter 4. Bridges or Breaches? Thoughts on How People Use Blogs in China 47
Kim De Vries

Chapter 5. Blogging in Russia Is not Russian Blogging 65
Karina Alexanyan and Olessia Koltsova

Chapter 6. Mapping the Australian Political Blogosphere 85
Axel Bruns and Debra Adams

Russell.qxd 12/29/2008 8:22 PM Page viii

Chapter 7. Blogs as Public Property Media: Defining the Roles and Assessing the Influence of Political Blogging in Israel 111
Carmel L. Vaisman

Chapter 8. Offline Politics in the Arab Blogosphere: Trends and Prospects in Morocco 133
Aziz Douai

Chapter 9. Beppegrillo.it: One Year in the Life of an Italian Blog 151
Giovanni Navarria

Chapter 10. Textual and Symbolic Resistance: Re-mediating Politics Through the Blogosphere in Singapore 173
Yasmin Ibrahim

Contributors 199
Index 201