

Plantation Pedagogy

A Postcolonial and Global Perspective

LAURETTE S. M. BRISTOL

Contents

Acknowledgments vii
Introduction: Teaching Troubles 1

Part One: Postcolonial Perspectives and Educational Analysis 5

1. Historical/Critical Pedagogy? Responding to Teaching Troubles 7
2. Postcolonialism: A Theoretical and Methodological Positioning 21
3. The History of Educational Development in Trinidad and Tobago: Education, Economy and Society 41
4. Plantation Pedagogy: A Legacy of Plantation Economy 63

Part Two: The Nature of Plantation Pedagogy as an Inherited Educational Practice 77

5. Understanding Education and Teaching in the Context of a Postcolonial Society 79
6. The Failure of Post-Independence Educational Reforms to Dislodge an Oppressive Form of Plantation Pedagogy 97
7. Teacher Conversations: Manifestations of Forms of Plantation Pedagogy 119

Part Three: Transforming Educational Practice through Plantation Pedagogy 145

8. Plantation Pedagogy as Subversive Activity 147
9. Transforming Educational Practice: Educating the Educators 167

Conclusion: Reflecting upon Educational Troubles 181
Bibliography 187
Index 201