second edition

MASTERING DEPUTY HEADSHIP

Acquiring the Skills for Future Leadership

Trevor Kerry

PEARSON
Longman

Mastering Deputy Headship

Mastering Deputy Headship -- eBook

Table of Contents

Cover
Mastering Deputy Headship
Contents
Series editors introduction
List of tasks
List of tables
List of figures
Preface
Acknowledgements
How to use this book
Starting off
- Introduction
- Preparation
- The first morning
- First encounters
- Coping with being de-skilled
- Being put to the test by colleagues
- Coping strategies for the first day and first week
- Linking theory to practice
- Summary

Working relationships with the headteacher
- Establishing trust

Table of Contents

- Trust and communication
- Developing a vision
- Factors in partnership
- Summary

Roles deputies play

- Job description
- The 15 key roles for deputy heads
- The job description revisited
- Summary

In at the deep end

- Introduction
- Critical incidents
- How the incidents were collected
- The outcomes
- Effective and less effective responses to the critical incidents
- Learning from critical incidents
- Summary

Relations with other staff

- Consultation
- Communication
- Conflict
- Summary

The deputy as leader

- Leader or manager?
- Leadership
- Some more characteristics of leadership

Table of Contents

- Leadership styles and organisational styles
- What kind of organisation do you belong to?
- Leadership style and the role of the deputy
- Leader as team player
- Why teams fail
- Summary

Managing personal time

- Problems of time
- Distinguishing the important from the urgent
- Keeping a diary
- Using a filing system
- Dealing with mail
- Using marginal time
- Summary

Learning, teaching and curriculum responsibilities

- Learning
- Teaching
- Curriculum issues
- Continuing professional development
- Summary

Driving forward a specific project

- Introduction
- A curriculum and learning issue: a scenario
- Analysis, reporting and written communication skills
- A sample report
- Reflection
- Summary

Table of Contents

Standards and quality

- Total quality management
- Defining the mission and intentions of the school
- From principle to policy
- Governors and quality
- Planning for quality: the School Improvement Plan
- Monitoring and evaluating quality
- Accountable for what? What to monitor and evaluate
- Statistical monitoring
- The role of the deputy in monitoring and evaluating
- Summary

Dealing with parents and governors

- Dealing with parents
- Face-to-face meetings with parents
- Problem solving with parents
- The deputy and the governors
- Summary

External relations

- Marketing the school
- Conveying messages: the school brochure
- Widening external relations:the welcoming school
- Summary

Mentoring,performance managing and interviewing

- Introduction
- Mentoring: wise counsellor or the blind leading the blind?
- Performance management

Table of Contents

- Targets in performance management
- Training and support
- The place of performance management in the development of the school
- Conclusion
- Interviews and interviewing
- Summary

Chairing skills

- The order and procedure of meetings
- Helpful hints for chairs
- Members ploys
- Summary

Planning, brief reporting and public speaking

- Planning: the background
- The planning process: an overview
- Reporting briefly
- Public speaking
- Summary

Budgets and finance

- Some theoretical issues
- Budgeting and management
- Budgeting: some practical issues
- Spending the budget
- Summary

Coping with change

- Introduction
- The story

Table of Contents

- Attitudes to change
- Images of change
- The change process
- Change and the deputy: advice and procedures
- Summary

Personal development

- The learning school
- How to learn
- Pathways to promotion
- Summary

Tailpiece

Afterword

References

Index